with physician assistants. Reduces membership on the state board of health facility administrators from 14 to 11, and makes conforming changes. Establishes qualifications for a provisional license for physicians. Adds a definition of "dispense" to the law concerning controlled substances. Provides that advanced practice nurses with prescriptive authority are subject to certain restrictions regarding drug samples. Makes changes to the membership of the board of accountancy. Makes other changes relating to the law concerning occupations and professions. Repeals a provision allowing real estate brokers and salespersons to use a notice of passing the required licensing examination as a temporary permit to practice. Repeals superseded sections in the licensing laws and a definition of "dispenser" in the controlled substances law.

20	may verify the information contained therein.
21	(g) An applicant who is seeking an initial license must pass an
22	examination approved by the commission that covers subjects and
23	topics of knowledge required to practice as an auctioneer. The 24	commission shall hold examinations as the commission may prescribe.
25	(h) The commission shall issue an auctioneer's license, in such form
26	as it may prescribe, to each individual who meets all of the
27	requirements for licensing and pays the appropriate fees.
28	(i) Auctioneer licenses shall be issued for a term of four (4) years.
29	A license expires at midnight on the date established by the licensing
30	agency under IC 25-1-6-4 and every fourth year thereafter, unless
31	renewed before that date. If the license has expired, it may be reinstated
32	not more than one (1) year not later than four (4) years after the date
33	it expired upon the payment of the renewal fee plus the reinstatement
34	fee established under IC 25-1-8-6 and submission of proof that the 36	the license holder meets the requirements of IC 25-1-8-6(c).

37	(j) If the a license has expired for a period of more than one (1)
38	year, the person must file an application and take the required
39	examination. However, an applicant for reinstatement of an expired
40	license is not required to complete the initial eighty (80) hour education
41	requirement under this section in order to reinstate the expired license.

The holder of an expired license shall cease to display the original wall

1	certificate at the holder's place of business and shall return the wall
2	certificate to the commission upon notification by the commission of
3	the expiration of the holder's license. four (4) years, the holder of the 4	license may have the license reinstated by satisfying the
5	requirements for reinstatement under IC 25-1-8-6(d).
6	(j) (k) The commission may waive the requirement that a
7	nonresident applicant pass an examination and that the nonresident
8	submit written statements by two (2) individuals, if the nonresident
9	applicant:
10	(1) is licensed to act as an auctioneer in the state of the applicant's
11	domicile;
12	(2) submits with the application a duly certified letter of
13	certification issued by the licensing board of the applicant's
14	domiciliary state;
15	(3) is a resident of a state whose licensing requirements are
16	substantially equal to the requirements of Indiana;
17	(4) is a resident of a state that grants the same privileges to the 18	licensees of Indiana; and

4	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2008]: Sec. 3. (a) This section does
5	not apply to an organization that operates a wholesale dealer
6	automobile auction.
7	(b) Every person, before operating an auction house, must obtain a
8	license from the commission for that auction house.
9	(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), before applying for a
10	license from the commission to operate an auction house, the following
11	must obtain a license as an auctioneer as provided in section 2 of this
12	chapter:
13	(1) An individual who seeks to operate an auction house.
14	(2) One (1) or more individuals designated by an organization that
15	seeks to operate an auction house.
16	(d) Subsection (c) does not apply to:
17	(1) a person that holds a valid license for an auction house as of 18	June 30, 1998; or
19	(2) a person that holds a valid renewal of a license described in 20	subdivision (1).
21	(e) Every applicant seeking to operate an auction house shall file
22	with the commission a completed application on a form provided by 23	the commission for a license for each auction house to be operated by
24	that person. Each application shall be accompanied by the license fee
25	prescribed by section 5 of this chapter and a surcharge described in 26	IC 25-6.1-8-2.
27	(f) Upon the receipt of a completed application for an initial or a
28	renewal license, the commission shall examine the application and may 29	verify the information contained therein.
30	(g) If the commission determines that the application has been
31	completed and that the statements made therein by the applicant are 32	true, the commission shall issue a license, in such form as it may
33	prescribe, for such auction house.
34	(h) Auction house licenses shall expire at midnight, February 28,
35	2004, on a date established by the licensing agency under

38	age of the applicant, the name under which the applicant intends
39	to conduct business, the principal broker's address where the
40	business is to be conducted, proof of compliance with subdivision
41	(2), and any other information the commission requires;
42	(4) pass a written examination prepared and administered by the

1	commission or its duly appointed agent; and
2	(5) submit not more than one (1) year after passing the written
3	examination under subdivision (4) a sworn certification of a
4	principal broker that the principal broker intends to associate with 5	the applicant and maintain that association until notice of 6	termination of the association is given to the commission.
7	(b) Upon the applicant's compliance with the requirements of 8	subsection (a), the commission shall:
9	(1) issue a wall certificate in the name of the salesperson to the 10	principal broker who certified the applicant's association with the 11	principal broker; and
12	(2) issue to the salesperson a pocket identification card which 13	certifies that the salesperson is licensed and indicates the
14	expiration date of the license and the name of the principal
15	broker.
16	(c) Notice of passing the commission examination serves as a
17	temporary permit to act as a salesperson as soon as the applicant sends,
18	by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, the
19	certification as prescribed in subsection (a)(5). The temporary permit
20	expires the earliest of the following:
21	(1) The date the license is issued.
22	(2) The date the applicant's association with the certifying
23	principal broker is terminated.
24	The temporary permit may not be renewed, extended, reissued, or
25	otherwise effective for any association other than with the initial
26	certifying principal broker.
27	(d) (c) A salesperson shall:
28	(1) act under the auspices of the principal broker responsible for
29	that salesperson's conduct under this article;
30	(2) be associated with only one (1) principal broker;
31	(3) maintain evidence of licensure in the office, branch office, or
32	sales outlet of the principal broker;
33	(4) advertise only in the name of the principal broker, with the 34	principal broker's name in letters of advertising larger than that of 35	the salesperson's name; and
36	(5) not maintain any real estate office apart from that office
37	provided by the principal broker.
38	(e) (d) Upon termination of a salesperson's association with a
39	principal broker, the salesperson's license shall be returned to the 40	commission within five (5) business days. The commission shall 41	reissue the license to any principal broker whose certification, as prescribed in subsection (a)(5), is filed with the commission, and the commission shall issue a new identification card to the salesperson reflecting that change.

- (f) (e) Unless a license is renewed, a salesperson license expires on a date specified by the licensing agency under IC 25-1-6-4 and expires biennially after the initial expiration date. An applicant for renewal shall submit an application in the manner prescribed by the board and pay the renewal fee established by the board under IC 25-1-8-2 on or before the renewal date specified by the licensing agency. If the holder of a license does not renew the license by the date specified by the licensing agency, the license expires and becomes invalid without the board taking any action.
- (f) If a salesperson the holder of a license under this section fails to reinstate a renew the license on or before the date specified by the licensing agency, the license may be reinstated by the commission within eighteen (18) months after expiration a if the holder of the license, may not be issued unless that salesperson again complies with the requirements of subsection (a)(3), (a)(4), and (a)(5). not later than three (3) years after the expiration of the license, meets the requirements of IC 25-1-8-6(c).
- (g) If a license under this section has been expired for more than three (3) years, the license may be reinstated by the commission if the holder meets the requirements for reinstatement under IC 25-1-8-6(d).
- (g) (h) A salesperson license may be issued to an individual who is not yet associated with a principal broker but who otherwise meets the requirements of subsection (a). A license issued under this subsection shall be held by the commission in an unassigned status until the date the individual submits the certification of a principal broker required by subsection (a)(5). If the individual does not submit the application for licensure within one (1) year after passing the commission examination, the commission shall void the application and may not issue a license to that applicant unless the applicant again complies with the requirements of subsection (a)(4) through (a)(5).
- (h) (i) If an individual holding a salesperson license is not associated with a principal broker for two (2) successive renewal periods, the commission shall notify the individual in writing that the individual's license will become void if the individual does not associate with a principal broker within thirty (30) days from the date the notification is mailed. A void license may not be renewed.

11	liability company.
12	(f) Upon the applicant's compliance with the requirements of 13	subsection (a), (b), or (c), the commission shall issue the applicant a
14	broker license and an identification card which certifies the issuance
15	of the license and indicates the expiration date of the license. The 16	license shall be displayed at the broker's place of business.
17	(g) Notice of passing the commission examination serves as a
18	temporary permit for an individual applicant to act as a broker as soon
19	as the applicant sends, by registered or certified mail with return
20	receipt requested, a timely license fee as prescribed in subsection
21	(a)(6). The temporary permit expires the earlier of one (1) year after the 22	date of the notice of passing the examination or the date a license is
23	issued.
24	(h) (g) Unless the license is renewed, a broker license expires, for
